

Test 14.

1. The plane was reported ... while landing.

a) to have crashed

b) have crashed

2. The situation turned out to be quite absurd. I couldn't but ... laughing.

a) to burst out

b) burst out

3. Julian felt the cold ... inside his flimsy coat.

a) to penetrate

b) penetrate

4. Modern art is when you buy a picture ... a hole in the wall and decide the hole is better.

a) cover

b) to cover

5. There was nothing to do but ... them with the information they required.

a) supply

b) to supply

6. Let's ... time watching this silly comedy!

a) not waste

b) not to waste

7. I'm sick and tired of your boasting. If I were you, I should ... it!

a) to stop

b) stop

8. Mind you it is a secret, and no one else must ... about it.

a) be told

b) to be told

9. The aim of a good general is not to fight but

a) to win

b) win

10. Destiny is not a thing ... , it is a thing to be achieved.

a) to be waited for

b) be waited for

11. Their family was made to sell their house for nothing and ... the town.

a) leave

b) to leave

12. You ought ... the doctor's instructions if you don't want to fall ill again.

a) to follow

b) follow

13. He, who would catch fish, must not ... getting wet.

a) to mind

b) mind

14. Lionel would like Sam ... his mouth shut and his ears open.

a) keep

b) to keep

15. It is better to give a shilling than ... a half-crown.

a) lend

b) to lend